

FINAL DAY OF INTER-COLLEGE YOUTH FESTIVAL

Powerhouse of talent rocks stage with dance and drama

DB Post Correspondent

Bhopal: The last day of the three-day youth festival began with several cultural events at city colleges which are affiliated to Barkatullah University of Bhopal. Thousands of students participated in intra-college contests, wherein selected students represented their respective colleges at the city level.

Winners of these competitions will represent Bhopal and Barkatullah University on the state level. Solo and group dance contest was held at Saet Hirdaran Girls college, western solo and group singing contest was held at Bhopal School of Social Science and a skit and mime contest was held at Motilal Vignyan Mahavidyalaya. This festival aims to discover and encourage the talent of students as a vital part of complete education.

MUSIC CASTS A SPELL

The BESK auditorium echoed with melodious English songs, with five group performances and ten solo performances. Aastha Saxena from Narela college won huge applause for singing "Blowing in the Wind". There were other group performances in which the Career college group sang a mash-up of several famous songs such as History, Story of life, What makes you beautiful and so on.

SKITS, MIMES TRAIN GUNS ON MULTIPLE ISSUES

Skits and mimes held at Motilal Vignyan Mahavidyalaya trained their guns on issues of female infanticide and water pollution, chemical mixing in food products, communication revolution, girl education, patriotism and Mahatma Gandhi's non-violence movement.
